

A FREE Intercultural Experience especially for young adults (20-40)

Join the Nebraska Humanities Council and Project Interfaith for a Sunday afternoon visit to the Islamic Center of Omaha and Omaha's Hindu Temple

Sunday, September 19, 2010
2:00 PM—5:30 PM

We'll travel together to each religious location where we'll be joined by a representative who will inform us about the Hindu and Muslim communities in Omaha—their religious traditions, and cultural and educational activities.

For more information and to register contact the Nebraska Humanities Council at (402) 474-2131 or nhc@nebraskahumanities.org.

Please register by Monday, September 13.
Space is limited.

Participants will be expected to remove their shoes at both the mosque and temple. Men should wear a nice shirt that covers past the elbows and long pants (no shorts permitted). Women should wear long pants or a full-length skirt and a shirt that covers past the elbows. Women should bring a large scarf to cover the hair and neck at the mosque. (No capris or short skirts. Avoid low cut blouses.)

Nebraska
Humanities
Council

